Note on the Audit of the Accounts of the Government Oriental Library, Mysore.

==========

Date of the commencement of the audit.. 21st December 1914

Date of completion of the audit..9th Feb. 1915

Name of the auditor... N. Lakshmana Rao

Name of the Curator in charge of the Library... Mr. A. Mahadeva Sastry, B.A.

==========

The audit was undertaken as per Government order No.615-16/Edn.46-14 dated 12th October 1914, at the instance of the Inspector General of Education in Mysore who desired that the accounts of the Library should be audited from the date of its institution. But the accounts were once audited in May 1905 by the outside audit department of the Comptroller's office and a second time on 16th May 1906. (Vide G.O.No.578-9/Ed.167-05-2 dated 19th July 1906.). The accounts of the period from the middle of May 1906 to end of December 1914 were accordingly taken up for review.

PART I.

Action taken on the previous audits:-

The result of the 2 previous audits was reported to be on the whole satisfactory, and the few minor objections, e.g., the utilisation of the fixed monthly grant of Rs.13 for unauthorised expenses, total purchase of articles th[illegible] should

10

Curator's Explanation.

All purchases and supplies objected to in the previous audit have since been avoided.

x These are:,

1. Permanent advances,
2. Manuscript and printed books,
3. (a) Printed books purchased,
   (b) monthly magazines subscribed,
   (c) manuscripts purchased,
   (d) collection and transcription of manuscripts,
   (e) binding of palm-leaf manuscripts,
4. Payments to copyists,
5. Furniture,
6. Miscellaneous.

Curator's Explanation

The previous auditor was understood to have said that the maintenance of a general cash book was unnecessary for the Library's transactions. As, however, the necessity of having such a book has been urged in the course of the recent audit, it has now been opened, and it contains all the cash transactions connected with the Library.

Curator's Explanation.

A Register of Stationery Receipts and Expenditure is now maintained in the prescribed form.

should have been obtained from the stationery depot, and purchase of clothing to peons, etc., were noted for future guidance. In the cash accounts produced in May 1905 for audit the transactions on account of Artware, which was also under the charge of the Curator, amounts drawn for contingencies, Government grants for supplies and services, sale proceeds of books were all mixed up, but from July 1905 the cash book was maintained in the form of a ledger in separate volumes for the several items dealt with x in the Library; separate cash registers were also maintained for:,

(1) deposits for loan of books,
(2) contingent expenditure,
(3) copyihg fees received from outsiders,
(4) realisations by sale of the publications of the Library remitted to the treasury.

The defoct under this arrangement was the want of facility to ascertain the balance of cash on hand at any time as in the absence of a consolidated cash account the balances under the several items of the cash book and those of the separate registers above referred to should have to be worked up and totalled. There was no evidence to shew that this was done and the cash verified with the book balance.

A stationery register in the prescribed form for issues was opened from 22nd July 1905 but it was discontinued after July 1907 and again opened from September 1913 but the entries therein made were not totalled. As no separate separate register was maintained for the receipt of the stationery from the Stationery Depot there was no means of ascertaining the stock of the articles on hand at any time.

PART II.

Result of the present audit.

1. The accounts and registers examined are detailed in appendix A accompanying this note and a brief description of ~~each~~ such of them as are found necessary to be described is given in appendix B.

2. The Curator is placed in possession of funds to meet the contingent and other expenditure in the following ways:-

(1) He holds a permanent advance of Rs.50/- to meet emergent payments,

(2) A fixed monthly grant of Rs.13/- or an annual grant of Rs.156/- is allowed to him and this is drawn from the treasury, according to requirements on bills signed by the curator,

(3) At the instance of the Curator the Inspector General of Education draws abstract contingent bills and endorses them for payment in favour of the Curator who cashes them at the Mysore District Treasury ~~and~~ makes payment to the proper parties and sends a detailed account with vouchers to the Inspector General of Education. The permanent advance is ordinarily utilised in in making advances on account of furniture purchase of books, etc., and is recouped by means of obtaining money on abstract contingent bills signed by the Inspector General of Education.

The fixed contingent grant of Rs.13/- was being drawn monthly along with establishment pay bill, and the unspent amounts were being kept on hand month after month, till July 1911 when this fixed monthly grant was converted into an annual grant of Rs.156/- ~~from 1911-12~~ and the whole amount was drawn and spent together with Rs.19-4-1 remaining on hand on 1st July 1911, during the year 1911-12. At present the actual amount required not exceeding the total allotment is being drawn and the vouchers in support of the charges are all attached to the bills sent to the treasury for encashment as required by Comptroller's No.442 dated 21st July 1911 to the address of the Deputy Commissioner, Treasury Department, Mysore District.

As regards the amounts drawn on abstract contingent bills received from the Inspector General of Education it is observed that as they may not all be paid in the month ~~to~~ in which the abstract contingent bills is cashed, The detailed contingent bills accounting for the sums obtained by him on abstract bills of the month are not submitted within the 15th of the next month, nor are the amounts remaining unpaid at the time of cashing the abstract contingent

Curator's Explanation.

The detailed contingent bills accounting for the amounts drawn in one month on abstract contingent bills signed by the I.G. of Education, are now regularly submitted before the 15th of the next month. On some ~~xxxxx~~ past occasions, submission of such bills was delayed owing to non-receipt of vouchers from the parties concerned and such other causes. This ~~point~~ has been noted for future guidance.

Contingent Bill for the next month shortdrawn in that bill. These irregularities should be rectifed.

3. The objections and doubtful points noticed in the course of the audit were communicated by means of objection statements all of which except in one or two instances have been satisfactorily answered by the Curator. These statements are attached to this note.

There remain some irregularities which which require to be specially noticed as requiring further action.

1. All cash received in the library including the permanent advance ws kept by the Curator in an iron-safe in his own house and not in the Library premises, and expenditure on account of the library was often met in the first instance out of the Curator's private funds as admitted by himself.

2. At the time of the Examination of the cash balance (on 21st December 1914 the full amount of the Permanent advance viz., Rs 50/- was shown as balance of cash on hand though therew were some payments amounting to Rs 12 odd made by the Curator remaining unrecouped.

The cash on hand on that date included the two following items.

1.	Amount due for books purchased, received from the Inspector General of Education on 17th December 1914 and remaining unpaid	17--3--0
2.	Deposits for loan of books as per details given below:--	38--2--0

16--1--'08	A.Venkataramiah	15--0--0
7--9--'08	Dobendranath Sen for E.No. 819	1--2--0
25--7--'10	T.R.Batam Rao	10--0--0
15--1--'14	S.Narasinga Rao	2--0--0
~~12--2--'14~~	~~K. Sripadachar~~	~~10--0--0~~

Why the first item of Rs 17--3--0 was kept undisposed of in the hands of the Curator was not clear.

As regards the amounts received as ~~deficit~~ Deposit,

Curator's Explanation.

The cash chest was kept in the Curator's house ~~under~~ his personal custody for better security, as the Library building is somewhat out of the way and as it was often found difficult to arrange for a sufficient guard. The Cash Chest has since been removed to the Library building.

As to advancing money for the office expenses out of the Curator's private funds.- This was done on some past occasions for some urgent purposes when no amount was available from the permanent Advance. But such advances are now strictly avoided.

The amount is made up of postage charges, subscriptions paid in the usual course for some journals which were afterwards disallowed by the Inspector General and taken up by the Curator for his own personal use.

Explanation.

Curator's ~~Remarks~~.

This amount (Rs.17-3-0) could not be paid to the payee Otto Harrassowitz; Leipzig, owing to the present war regulations. The I.G. of Education having already been informed of the fact when submitting the detailed contingent bill of the library for August 1914, his instructions were awaited. The amount has since been Xurator's Explanation.

The Treasury will have to be instructed accordingly.

Curator's Explanation

These points have been noted for future guidance.

9

Curator's Explanation.

Noted for future guidance.

As already said, the amounts drawn on abstract contingent bills in one month have been accounted for before the 15th of the next month.

deposit the Curator should be asked to remit them to the treasury to be placed in deposit and to be refunded to him whenever required to be repaid to parties.

As already observed the contingent expenditure of the office actually incurred during one month is not always drawn from the Treasury before the last working day of the month as required by the rules nor was it charged in the accounts for that month. Such payments were not invariably met out of the Permanent advance amount but they were often made by the Curator out of his private funds.

These payments were noted in a rough register and scored off as they were recouped by means of abstract contingent bills drawn by the Inspector General and cashed in the Treasury. It is highly irregular to ~~make up~~ mix up private money with that of Government. If the Permanent Imprest amount was insufficient to meet necessary emergent payments, arrangements should be made to get abstract contingent bills cashed in the treasury in proper time. It should also be observed as an invariable rule that no amounts drawn on abstract contingent bills should be kept on hand undisbursed before ~~lapse~~ money is drawn again on abstract contingent bills and all amounts drawn in one month should be accounted for before the 15th of the next month.

Curator's Explanation.

Noted for future guidance.

4. On 1st march 1911 anna one is charged for a receipt stamp for acknowledgment of Rs 102--8--0 copying fees for Stapada Brahmana and on 4th June 1912 annas two are charged for two receipt stamps. The Library being a Government Institution, there was no need for attaching receipt stamps for acknowledgments by the Curator.

Curator's Explanation.

This year's Indent for stationery includes these items.

12

Typewriting and Carbon papers may be got from the Superintendent, Government Stationery Depot subject to adjustment as required by article 239, Mysore Treasury Manual.

Curator's Explanation.

'8' for '2' seems to be a clerical error.

13

5. On the 9th July 1909 Rs 42-2-0 was advanced from the Imprest amount as under:----

Monthly magazines	22--2--0
C.N.Josyar for collation	20--0--0
Total.....	Rs. 42--2--0

and Rs 42--8--0 or annas six in excess of the amount advanced were noted as received on 9th August 1909.

Curator's Explanation.

The journal was intended for use in the Branch Press and was got at the instance of the Foreman of the Press who looks after the printing of the publications of this library. Its cost amounting to Rs.12-3-0 was advanced from the Permanent advance of the Library with a view to purchasing it for the Library. But subsequently, before this item was entered in the Library Registers, the Foreman offered to purchase it from his private funds and so this item in the cash book was cancelled. The amount paid from

14

In the details given for Rs 22-2-0 under magazines Rs 12/- subscription for Inland Printer, Chicago for one year and annas three Money Order commission thereon are remarked as cancelled. It is said that the magazine was got for the foreman of the branch press from whom the amount was recovered on 9th August 1909 and utilised in purchasing purchasing books as under.

Nos. 118-124	-------	Rs. 11--7--0
134 ...	...	0-12--0
		Rs. 12--3--0

Neither the receipt of the amount nor the payment of the books mentioned was entered in the accounts. The amoun recovered should have been shortdrawn in the Abstract Contingent Bill for the month in which the purchases of books Nos. 118-124 and 134 were made after charging therefor in it.

the Permanent Advance of the Library was thus recouped from the Foreman of the Branch Press. The mention of these facts and other details was thought unnecessary.

Curator's Explanation.

Noted for future guidance.

15

6. Rs. 421--6--6 realised by sale of the Library publications from November 1911 to end of August 1912 were remitted to the Treasury on 30th August 1912 Rs. 144-11-0 realised from February to June 1914 on 30th June 1914 and Rs 81-15-6 realised during July 1914 on 31st August 1914. In the meantime amounts were irregularly utilised in making advances for purchase of manuscripts including some rare ones offered for sale and for almirahs articles received by V.P.Parcel and Copyists fees.

Furniture.

7. No regular stock of the furniture of the Library was taken at any time after 1904-05. On examining the stock on 28th January 1915 with the furniture account it was found that the following articles were not in the Library premises.

(a) One wooden and 1 glass almirah and two chairs.

Curator's Explanation.

(b) The Library articles ~~fax~~ of furniture in the Curator's house have been sent back to the Library.

(c) The stool has since been found.

16

(b)

(b) 1 Open book stand.

2. Iron safe.

2. Benches

1 Low desk, and

1 pigeon holdd small al

(c) One stool

8. It was explained that articles mentioned in (a) were in the Branch Government Press at Mysore, ~~then~~ those mentioned in (b) in the Curator's house and that 1 stool alone was missing.

8 Many books and manuscripts lent out have not been received back. A list of the books etc., remaining ~~to be recovered~~ to be recovered with the names of the persons to whom they are lent and date is prepared and attached to this note. From this it will be seen that some books were lent more than 15 years ago and that in some cases the dates of loan were not known. Early slips should be taken to get back the books or their cost or to have ~~x~~ these written off under Government saction if they are not recoverable

Curator's Explanation.

Books sometimes lent to high officers of the State and other respectable people since dead, for the purpose of official reference, etc., were not returned during their life time though they were often reminded for the return of the books. After their death it was not found possible to recover them. A list of such books will be submitted to Government for orders. As to persons now living who have not returned the Library books they have already been asked to return the them early.

(11)

No rules appear to have been framed and approved by Government of the Inspector General of Education for the working of the Library and the lending of the books fixing a time limit for their return. Fresh books are ~~sent~~ lent to persons when the books already taken by them remain unreturned.

Curator's Explanation.

(12) Loan of books to readers with or without deposit has all along been under the rules left to the discretion of the Curator. Fresh rules for the purpose may be framed.

18

Curator's Explanation.

These are a few copies of books and pamphlets meant for free distribution to the ~~xxxx~~ visitors to the Library. They have been since removed.

Description of the Registers and Remarks.

1. The Cash Book.

As already stated above this is not a consolidated one and consists of transactions under different items dealt with by the Curator quite independent of each other. The disadvantage arising out of this is already detailed and no object is gained by the present system in as much as the progressive totals of the amounts charged under the several items is not worked up. There is no necessity for maintaining Registers Nos. 2, 4 and 5 separately if a general cash book is maintained and the transactions relating to these are entered therein. The amounts of the pay of the Permanent and Temporary establishment bills cashed at the Treasury and disbursements thereof as also the realisations by sale of the Library publications and remittance thereof to the Treasury (in abstract for the day) may also be entered in this general cash book.

Curator's Explanation.

(1) Such a Cash Account Book has since been opened as already stated.
(2) A register of this description has been opened from 1-7-15.
(3) A register in the prescribed form has been opened.
(4) Entering the stamps purchased and used has been adopted.
(5) (a) (b) (c). The suggestions for dispensing with the various shelf registers and registers in connection with the presentation of the Library publications are noted.

(2) The detailed contingent bills Copy register may also be replaced by a contingent register (in finl. No. maintained the charges incurred for office contingent expenditure by the Curator and those paid out of the amounts received from the Inspector General of Education being entered therein under the several heads chronologically as per entries in the cash book. This will facilitate the preparation of the detailed contin ent bills for submissio to the Inspector General of Education

(3) The Stationery Register.

This is now maintained in the form of a ledger one page being allotted to the Curator to each of the 5 Pandits, the Librarian and the Copyists employed for transcription of the Manuscripts. The issues made being entered therein promiscuiously It is not possible to find out how much of each of the articles were issued during a period. No registers of the Receipts (except the Indent to the Stationery Depot wherein the articles received are noted and the balance on hand of these articles is maintained. And these are promised to be ppened.

4 (5) Register of service labels.

The service labels purchased from the Treasury are not noted in this Register and no balance worked up at any time, and purchases of the labels are made even when there is a large quantity quantity is on hand simple, because the amount therefor is found available out of the contingent grant. The stock on hand on 6th January 1915 was for Rs. 19-4-6

(5) Printed Books and Manuscripts Registers.

(a) The printed books (English, Sanskrit and Kanarese etc.,) and Manuscript (Sanskrit and Kanarese) in paper and Palm Leaf, are first entered each in a general Register giving particulars of the name of the book, name of the autho character in which printed or written and cost and are again copied in what are called the Shelf Registers. There are three such Registers for the Printed books one for the English one for Sanskrit and the third for Kanarese and other languages. The Sanskrit books are classified into three divisions A, B & C according as they are of big or small size or lengthwise. The books entered in these shelf Registers are serially numbered from the ver commencement.

(b) Similarly separate shelf Registers kept for the manuscripts on paper and the Palm leaf manuscripts are all copied serially numbered in a separate register up to the end of 1903-04. One general serial No. was given to the Printed books Subsequently the general number is restricted to each official year i.e., from July to end of June.

June The No. of Books purchased up to end of 1903-04 is 6074 and that to end of December 1914 is 10,022.

~~The number of manuscripts on hand~~

And again a ledger is maintained in which one page is allotted for each institution or person and the presentations made from time to time is entered in it so that the books presented to each Institution or person may be found at once.

The registers maintained for the printed books, manuscripts and the library publications are too many and much time is taken up in re-copying from the General into the several shelf and subsidiary registers and this may be saved by opening suitable columns in the general registers themselves. This was pointed out in the course of audit and promised to be followed after trial

(7) Catalogues.

Separate catalogues are prepared for the English and Sanskrit and Kanarease Printed books and manuscripts and are printed as under:---

1. English works 1912
2. Samskrit do 1908
3. Samskrit Manuscripts
   Vol. I 1900
   Vol. II 1911
4. Kanarese books and Manuscripts 1904

The volumes subsequently purchased are added on to this in manuscript on loose loose sheets of paper.

For reference in the office an alphabetical Index of the manu scripts and sanskrit and Kanarese books is maintained The one for the latter is not uptodate.

In these catalogues the books are arranged subjectwor. In the catalogue for English books, the books under each section are serially numbered. In the others the shelf numbers of the books are given. ~~as under~~:---

The number of manuscripts are as under

Palm Leaf	Sanskrit	4,175

Paper.	A.	558
	B	941
	C	1,874

up to end of June 1914. The purchases made from July 1914 are not yet taken in these registers.

(8) The Literary Publications.

Up to date 50 works (44 Samskrit and 6 Kanarese) are published by the Library and are available for sale to the public. The list of these with the prices is printed and circulated.
